WHERE NATIVE ARTS MEET THE WORLD

NATIVE AMERICAN CLOTHING CONTEST: Call For Entries

Be a part of the 2011 Native American Clothing Contest! Indian Market's Clothing Contest is a visually inspiring competition with over 125 contestants and 18 design categories.

Traditional categories will be judged by seven distinguished Native American judges from various tribes as well as a celebrity judge for the Contemporary categories. "Best of Show" awards will be given to one male and one female, of any age, any tribe and any category.

You may be required to present Tribal ID or CIB (Certificate of Indian Blood) and authorization by an Indian Market participating artist to participate (booth holder signature required).

The Clothing Contest is billed as "the Most Photographed Event of Indian Market Week." NACC Photography will be coordinated through SWAIA's Public Relations. We will request that photographers are professional and respectful when taking photographs. Your cooperation is appreciated. Photo releases must be signed by each entrant upon registration.

Please note the following changes:

- The entry forms for the Traditional Category and the Contemporary Category have been revised to a single form
- The age groupings have been changed to 4 groups – Children 1-5 yrs, 6 -12 yrs, 13 -17 yrs, and Adults 18 & over
- There will be no facilities to dress. Please be dressed prior to Registration
- The contemporary category has been changed to female contemporary and male contemporary categories

Please complete the attached registration form at your earliest convenience, it will save time at the Registration table. The table will be located by the gazebo and will be open from 8:00-8:45a.m. Registration will close at 8:45 a.m., so please be on time. The NACC will start promptly at 9:00 a.m. on Sunday, August 21.

The NACC Awards Program is implementing new categories to accommodate clothing designers

- Classification VI – Textiles & Basketry
- Division B: Clothing
- VIB: Category 2101 – Traditional hand-woven articles of clothing (e.g., Blanket dresses)
